AMERICA STANDS ALONE AND HATED IN THE WORLD

How Did We Get Where We Are?

The United States today is in a position of great and terrible danger. We are in danger of military annihilation. We have lost all of our allies except Great Britain, and we may well lose Britain too. We will not survive the present crisis unless we come to understand how we got where we are. There is really no great mystery about the matter. We did not arrive at our present predicament suddenly. All the time, there have been unheeded voices warning against the direction in which we were heading. The facts of our situation have been known to sophisticates around the world for forty years. Those who know include the men who run the affairs of all really advanced and civilized nations. The American public knows least of all, because our mass media for a long time have concealed the realities from us.

Two principal forces have driven us to our present position of near disaster. These two forces are Zionism and Marxism. The wider American public really knows very little about either of these two forces. We have lived in an atmosphere of carefully-created falsity for so long that the sense of reality has disappeared. It is almost impossible to discuss either Zionism or Marxism in a really intelligent manner in America today. Here we have no simple proposition where one side is "RIGHT" and the other side "WRONG." We do not even have, generally available, any accurate information about either Zionism or Marxism. The American public has been so well trained to accept myth in lieu of reality that it is almost a waste of time to attempt to drag reality into the public view. Our poisoned mass media have labored so hard, not to inform us but to manage us, that we are a thoroughly brainwashed nation.

Let us first consider Marxism. Marxism is not new. It has been around for a hundred years. It is a hoary old fraud which should have been disposed of efficiently at least forty years ago. Yet it is still around, still generating preposterous myths which ought to be laughed to scorn, but which, instead, are widely believed. At the time of the October Revolution in Russia, we were told some wonderful tales. We were told that the workers and peasants of Russia, tiring of the old Czarist regime, had revolted and had set up a kind of organization called "Soviets." They had read Karl Marx's Das Kapital, and had been converted to his ideas, and were now proceeding to set up a Workers' State. Anyone who knows anything about real working men or peasants should know immediately that this is a highly fanciful tale. Working men do not set up "Soviets." Working men do not read books like DAS KAPITAL. In fact, workers and peasants had absolutely nothing whatsoever to do with the October Revolution. The professional revolutionists who brought it off feared the workers and peasants more than any other element of the population. Workers and peasants are generally very conservative, and the revolutionists especially feared a resurgence of patriotism among the common people of Russia.

There is no such thing as "Proletarian Revolution." There has never been any such thing. A man who sets out to establish him-

General Nathan F. Twining, one of our nation's most distinguished military leaders (now retired), has sounded a stunning warning to the people of America. He says our country is in critical danger, and he says the danger is within. General Twining says there are three forces at work within our nation and that the results they are achieving are bringing on the gravest crisis our nation has ever faced. He names these forces at work:

(1) "An anti-nuclear clique of moralists, pacifists and academic dreamers associated at influential levels with the State and Defense Departments and the White House. (They have) been a major force in the retardation of our weapons technology and in the weakening of our deterrent."

(2) Soviet propagandists effectively circulating the idea in America that Soviet Russia will be a good neighbor if the United States will but disarm.

(3) "The rigid application of Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara's 'cost-effectiveness' theory to defense planning."

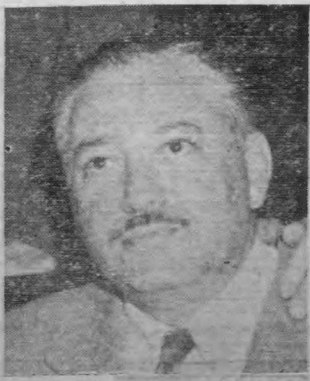

In The White House

General Twining tells how a member of the anti-nuclear clique, Dr. Jerome Wiesner, White House advisor on nuclear matters, influenced President Kennedy to turn down a request by prominent "nuclear and military professionals" for a research project in the high-yield nuclear-weapons field. Dr. Wiesner and his MIT colleague, Dr. Walt Rostow, have continued through the years to be two of the greatest influences in the White House and the State and Defense Departments.

self in power automatically separates himself from proletarian status. There is no "Materialist Dialectic" predetermining the future. Yet this cock-and-bull tale of "Proletarian Revolution" has been discussed quite seriously around the world for a hundred years, by people otherwise alleged to be intelligent. Certainly what we are dealing with here is a major failure of the modern mind.

Actually, this is the real purpose of Marxism: To produce, not a new social order, but a failure of the Gentile mind. The real key to the matter is Jewish domination of the sources of information. In the 1920's American newspapers were full of tall tales about "Red Russia." There were cartoons, editorials, feature articles, books. The gist of the tale fed to the American middle class was that working men had taken over Russia, and were destroying religion, property, and tradition. This tale was almost universally accepted. Good middle-class folk tingled with fear over the prospect of an uprising of the working class all over the world. Nobody stopped to think that the SAME PEOPLE had come to control news all over the world. The same people who denounced Communism in the Podunk Morning Times, out in the American Middle West, praised it to the skies in Pravda in Moscow. The capitalist newspapers of America and the Communist newspapers of Russia were all dominated by the SAME influence, that is to say, by the JEWS. The Jews told one tale in Russia, and another in America. In both instances, they told whatever tale would best serve their own purpose, and bothered not to give any accurate information. The Jew can be a "Communist" when he wishes, but he can with equal ease be an "Anti-Communist." You can't lose when you control both sides. If you want to rule the whole world, you can't bother with anything so simple-minded and childish as "taking sides" in a forthright manner.

Even the American "RIGHT WING" has had its thinking tailored largely by the Jews. American Conservatives accepted all too eagerly the tall tales about "Working Class Revolution" in Russia. The myth held that Russia and the American Working Class were allied in an effort to overthrow decency and order throughout the world. The plain fact is that the American middle class accepted class hatred a bit too eagerly. They were just a bit too eager to believe that all working men were "Dirty Reds," and that the world proletariat was the principal cause of dangers which beset decent middle-class folk. The Jews had figured on that. When they set out to bag the Gentile Bourgeoisie, they knew exactly how to bait their hooks. The middle-class swallowed the myth of "Proletarian Revolution." They swallowed it hook, line, and sinker. When they had swallowed it, the Jews had them fairly hooked. The Gentile Bourgeoisie never bothered to find out what was really going on. The Gentiles believed the myths. The Jew held the key to reality.

Germany had gone a long, long way down this road when Hitler came along. Marxism was strong in Germany. The defeat of Germany in World War II has obscured the fact that Germany won the battle against Marxism on the home front. They did not win it by winning a macabre victory over the working class. Rather, they finally saw through the Jewish scheme. They saw that life was not fundamentally a struggle between labor and capital. Rather, the problem was to unite the VOLK, the people, into a unified, solid, patriotic nation. Certainly, there would be class distinctions. Some people would hold higher rank than others, some would have more money than others. Nevertheless, all were part of the VOLK, and had rights and duties related to their membership in the tribe.

This concept of the VOLK is almost totally missing from American life. I know otherwise decent bourgeoisie folk in America who regard the working class as a special race of mad dogs, to whom no human obligations are owed. In Germany, social discipline was more strict. Perhaps there was less freedom, or at least less anarchy and license. The idea of "Command" and "Obedience" was accepted in German life. Nevertheless, no German ever regarded another German with the same kind of class hatred and contempt some people level against others in America. The concept of the VOLK is a racial concept, the concept of a racially homogeneous nation which is proud of its race. The rich men who built nineteenth century America bothered little about building a VOLK. Their immigration policies were rigged to bring in the most desperate people in the world. They wanted cheap labor, not race quality. The slave trade brought in the Negro, brought tragedy for both Negro and White. Today the Jews have organized the Negroes and are using them as a battering ram against the Gentile Bourgeoisie.

The impact of Marxism in America has been terrific. Marxism will never bring a Communist Revolution in America. It doesn't want to, doesn't need to. Marxism achieves its aims in America simply by serving as an ideological lever. In the hands of the Jews, this lever divides the Gentile social classes, separates the masses of Gentiles from Gentile leadership, and thus delivers the whole nation into the hands of the Jews.

The delusion persists that Marxism is some sort of "contest" between the rich and the poor. Nothing could be further from the truth. Marxism is a movement of the rich not a movement of the poor. No country has ever been saved from Marxism by its rich men. Rich men are more often interested in saving their own hides. Indonesia was rescued from Communism by her military men, not by rich men. Greece was saved from Communism this year by a military coup. Rich Greeks didn't lift a finger to save the country from Marxism. Let us have done with the notion that Marxism is a revolution of "the poor." Let us now try to re-establish contact with reality. Let us see if we can escape the mental cage which the Jews have constructed for us with their Marxian-Freudian charlatanism.

The rest of the world IS escaping from Jewish control. Only the U.S.A. and Great Britain today lie supine under Jewish rule. Russia, which suffered for forty years under the Jewish lash, is breaking her bonds. Many readers of COMMON SENSE apparently are reluctant to accept this fact. They appear eager to believe that "the Jewish disease" infects chiefly other nations, not the U.S.A. The "menace" must come from Russia. Actually, the menace which comes from Russia today is chiefly a MILITARY menace rather than an ideological menace. Russia, with a fast-building arsenal of super-weapons, no longer feels much need to bother with ideological arguments. The fact is that Jewish plans have failed badly in Russia. This really should be no surprise to us. Jewish plans will fail everywhere, because Jewish ideology is unsound, because the Jewish effort to rule the world by sheer intellectual power is a great folly in the first place. Henry Ford raised this question in his book, The International Jew: "Is the Jew a superman, whom it is useless for lesser mortals to resist?" Can the Jews succeed at anything they wish to do? Can they assume power over the world by virtue of the superiority which they fancy themselves to have? One reader of COMMON SENSE wrote to us and asked, "What sort of people are they anyway? Do they come from another planet? These people will do anything."

The modern Jew is fundamentally an intellectual con man and a quack. Far from being a superman, he is merely a common swindler. Who are the Jews? Many American Christians think that they are the people who wrote the Old Testament, the people who killed Christ, a people wandering exiled from their homeland as long as they maintain a position of theological unsoundness.

Long-time readers of COMMON SENSE know about the Khazars. Long ago, the king of this South Russian tribe decided to teach his people a new religion. They were going from bad to worse, running naked and engaging in sexual promiscuity all the time, worshipping obscene idols. The king found them hard to manage and decided that it was time to straighten them out. He invited representatives of the Christian, Moslem, and Jewish faiths to come and expound their three religions, so that he could adopt one of them for his people. The king listened to a priest, a mullah, and a rabbi, and chose Judaism. At this time, there were only a small number of "real" Jews in the world. The real Jews lived in North Africa, Asia Minor, and in the ghettos of Western Europe. They were commercial people, and tended to have rather small families, as urban people often do. The "real" Jews were a played-out people, the residue of the brilliant Oriental culture which also produced Islam. The Khazars were a fast-breeding agricultural and military people, who carved out a vast empire for themselves in Southern Russia. At one time they could make war with the Byzantine Empire, and still later with the Ottoman Turks. It took some real military power to make war with the Ottoman Turks. When the Khazars were converted to Judaism, the tail soon began to wag the dog. The Khazars outnumbered the real Jews by at least twenty to one. Most of the so-called Jews of the world today are Khazars. To my way of thinking, the "real" Jew is the Oriental Jew, especially the Sephardic Jew. Oriental Jews are entirely different from the Khazars. The Oriental Jew is seldom happy in the Republic of Israel. He finds that he is not among "his own kind of people." The Oriental Jew and the Arabs always got on famously together, because they belonged to the same basic culture. The Khazars are the Zionists. When an Oriental Jew wished to move to Jerusalem, he simply moved there and lived at peace with his Arab neighbors. When the Khazar Jews moved into Palestine, they threw out the Arabs. For all the Khazar Jews cared, the Arabs could have starved. The Palestine refugees became a charge upon the charity of the world through no fault of their own. The Oriental Jews and the Arabs were always rather fond of each other. The Khazar Jews and the Arabs are mortal foes.

So what do we mean when we speak of "the Jews" anyway? There is really no such race as "the Jews." Christian bigots sometimes call Jews "Christ Killers." This is a false accusation against the Khazars. At the time of the crucifixion, they were running naked in their wild Central Asian forests, and barely knew how to wear clothes. They worshipped an especially obscene lot of idols, and they never heard of Christ until long centuries after the crucifixion. Nor do the Khazars have any legitimate claim upon the Old Testament tradition, to which they have never paid much real attention anyway.

Who is a Jew? Why be a Jew? These are questions which need answers, but really find only evasions.

When I went to the drugstore for coffee this morning, I stopped to look at the paperback book rack. There were the usual mess of mediocre hack Jewish writers on sale. Some book covers bore the usual Jewish boasts. "WE ARE AN ETERNAL PEOPLE. OTHER CIVILIZATIONS DECLINE AND FALL, BUT WE GO ON FOREVER AND FOREVER." In fact, the Jews are not an "eternal" people. If we had only the "real" Jews to contend with, there would be no anti-Semitism, no Middle East crisis, no "Jewish problem" at all. The "real" Jews belong to an ancient Oriental culture, whose fires have long since burned out. The "real" Jews would never have produced Marx or Freud. The "real" Jews have no ambitions except personal ambitions. They are not the originators of great "movements" of any kind. Oswald Spengler points out in his great master work, THE DECLINE OF THE WEST, that ancient Jewry came to its end in the late middle ages in Spain. It had reached and passed the peak of its glory. It was dead. Nothing more could be accomplished by it. The "real" Jew is a rather charming fossil, a relic of a dead age.

The Khazars are a different kettle of fish. It has happened in history that some ambitious tribe of "country boys" have emerged from their sylvan obscurity and consumed by ambition, have conquered the whole world. The Macedonians were the "country boys" of the ancient Greek world. Under Alexander the Great, they conquered the whole known world, and Alexander moaned because there were no more worlds to conquer.

The Khazars are an overly-ambitious tribe

Winston) together with recent statements constitute the latest in a series of warnings voiced by Americans whose authority, experience, wisdom, integrity and patriotism cannot be questioned.

Working In High Places

His statements will remove any doubt that the most influential forces in the highest echelons of our Government today "don't believe that the Soviets mean it when they tell us that someday they will destroy us. They insist that our military supremacy has been 'provocative' and largely responsible for the tensions of the past two decades. They theorize that if we scale down our strategic capability to the point where it is equal to or even a little inferior to Russia's, the Soviets will stop competing, the arms race will end and peace will reign."

General Twining, as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff for four years before his retirement, undoubtedly is one of the most knowledgeable Americans as regards the conflict between World Communism and the U.S.A. He believes the Soviets "might attack" our nation when and if "they were convinced that they had achieved a clear strategic ascendancy and could strike with acceptable losses to themselves." He considers our present policy as a disarmament policy — to appease Soviet Russia, and he declares that it is "a blueprint for national suicide."

The facts revealed by General Twining plus the recent UPI dispatch quoting high American military men in Vietnam as declaring the Vietnamese war "could be over in one month" if the White House would permit the bombing of "key military targets" in North Vietnam, must be further explored by the American people.

In Critical Danger

General Earle G. Wheeler, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (the nation's top military strategy board), has added his voice to warnings sounded by General Twining that foreign policy and military policy decisions are being made for the American people which constitute "a blueprint for national suicide." In an unprecedented break with Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, the Joint Chiefs' Chairman said that America is not adequately defended against Soviet Communism.

General Wheeler called for the development and deployment of an anti-missile system in the United States. The Soviets have developed and are deploying one, he said. His public revelation of critical shortcomings in the nation's defense tied in with General Twining's statements declaring there is "a clear and present danger" to America because forces are at work "at influential levels within the State and Defense Departments and the White House," weakening our nation and strengthening World Communism.

The Enemy: Our "Friends?"

The clique of Presidential foreign policy advisors who are promoting the idea that Soviet Communism has changed, that it can now be trusted and that the United States should aid it with trade and treaties and favors of all kind, have a word: "Detente." They say "detente" now exists between the Soviet Communist dictators and the American President. It is not an English word, but our digging through foreign dictionaries establishes it as French, and meaning "lessening of tension and conflict" between nations.

The Presidential advisors use it to describe "a warming up, in a friendly way" of the Soviet attitude toward America. The word wasn't used but the same thought was present back in 1933 when Stalin was "warming up" to Roosevelt and the U.S. granted diplomatic recognition to the brutal dictatorship in the Kremlin; nor when President Truman called him "Good Old Joe"; nor when President Eisenhower gave Dictator Khrushchev world-wide respectability in a White House embrace; nor when President Kennedy brought to his own children in his Virginia home the warming presence of Kremlin officialdom.

The Great Deception

Stalin's agreement with Roosevelt in 1933 was "warm and friendly" and was followed by the spread of Communist subversion into every nation on earth and a fantastic expansion of Communism's aggressive world power. Truman's "Good Old Joe" took from the U.S. and its Western allies, following World War II, Poland, Eastern Europe, Czechoslovakia, China, and North Korea — to mention just a few major Red advances. Following his "warming up" social whirl in the White House with Eisenhower, Khrushchev engineered the monstrous killing off of the freedom uprising in Red Hungary and put Castro in power in Cuba (with indispensable U.S. help).

And after Kennedy's friendly fraternizing with Kremlin family personalities, Khrushchev, under the eyes of his American "friends," sneaked ballistic missiles with nuclear war-heads onto the plains of Cuba fronting the U.S.A., just 90 miles from Key West, Florida (and some sources say "friendly negotiations" resulted in some of these deadly missiles remaining in mountainous caves in the Cuban uplands).

Defenseless Against Attack!

General Wheeler and General Twining have gone to the American people with a warning that our nation is embarked, unnecessarily, on a course endangering our security and future. Both have explained that Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, overruling the unanimous opinion of the Joint Chiefs, has refused to build the anti-missile Nike-X system on the theory that deployment of defensive nuclear armament by the United States would cause Soviet Russia to further expand its entire nuclear capability; therefore, we are virtually defenseless — at least for the next few years — against a first-strike armada of Russian missiles.

Here are the facts, in which the American people may have a life-or-death stake:

Intelligence sources have confirmed to the Pentagon (says General Wheeler) that the Russians have developed an anti-ballistic missile system (ABM) and have deployed it around Moscow. The same U.S. Intelligence source reports deployment of "suspected" ABM hardware in northern Russia — to intercept and kill off Russia-bound missiles launched across "the top of the world" from U.S. bases. Secretary McNamara questions the reports on the northern Russia installations. He thinks these may be merely surface-to-face (anti-aircraft) armament. General Wheeler doesn't. He thinks they likely are ABM's.

McNamara's Theory

Secretary McNamara believes, according to General Wheeler, that (1) the U.S. has in 1967 achieved "a nuclear stalemate" with Russia, and that (2) if the U.S. should begin building and deploying an ABM system, this would only cause the Soviets to build and deploy more of their own and at the same time accelerate the production of attack missiles — in other words, step up their war-making capability. This in turn, so the McNamara theory goes, would make it necessary for America to expand its defense and attack capabilities, "and we'd be engaged in an endless, costly, useless armament race with Russia."

Both General Wheeler and General Twining contend that Russia is today expanding her offensive as well as defensive nuclear capability, while the U.S.A. is being left behind, especially in armament capable of intercepting a Russian H-bomb missile attack.

"A true nuclear stalemate," says General Twining, "means that both sides have weapons and delivery forces, and neither side can defend effectively against the other. This idea is also sometimes called 'stable deterrence.' The advocates of this theory would reduce emphasis on nuclear weapon development, both defensive and offensive, thus holding at our present level. If we follow this course of action, we will be committing suicide because the enemy is not following it."

Russians Seek Mastery

"Americans will wake up some fine day," says General Twining, "and the U.S.S.R. will have the nuclear monopoly. The United States will have bombs and warheads which the military cannot deliver (through Russia's advancing ABM defense) and the enemy will have bombs and warheads which our military services cannot stop." General Twining also points out that the present bomber policy of Secretary McNamara, overruling the military

TREASON is TREASON

By J. KESNER KAHN

The announced disposal of the Hon. Robert McNamara who occupied the post of Sec. of Defense since 1961 has brought forth a rash of comments singularly lacking in references to what transpired while he ruled over our defensive establishments. For instance:

We cancelled the Skybolt plane-to-ground missile with which our bombers could hit enemy targets without exposing themselves to anti-aircraft fire. He cancelled the Pluta missile which could avoid anti-missile and anti-aircraft defenses, a weapon so powerful the Soviets are still trying to perfect their own version of it. He cancelled the mobile missile bases which could be safe from enemy attack. He cancelled the B-70 and stopped production on the B-47, B-52 and B-58 bombers. He grounded our Strategic Air Command's airborne alert. His TFX-F-111 ranks with the Edsel car as a success. He's wiped out our defensive and offensive capabilities in biological warfare. He put the nuclear powered Savannah in mothballs at costs above what it would cost to operate, while it is sorely needed to transport supplies to Vietnam. He has demoralized and disarrayed our National Guard and Reserve Forces. He has kept our forces in Vietnam under-supplied with ammunition and material and supplied failure-prone weapons. His wastefulness far exceeds his vaunted economies. His support of a Test Ban Treaty before we had equivalent experience to the Soviets left us with a weapons gap. His censorship of the speeches of officers smacks of the worst in dictatorships. He scrapped superior weapons like the Dyna-Soar Spacecraft, the Atlas Missile, the Coin-Lara aircraft so sorely needed now in Vietnam, the whole Anti-Ballistic Missile array, and substituted inferior weapons. His Typhon weapons proved too big for the Navy's ships and leave us still without adequate air defense for our Navy. He blocked the nuclear fleet program. He has maintained a pilot shortage by cutting down training programs below requirements. He has punished military officers for telling the truth and giving facts to our representatives in Congress. Even said: "It would be a social good," when commenting on the elimination of our "defense entirely."

It has all been so unbelievable, it will take Americans quite some time to be able to believe it; and that it has happened to them!

advisors, already has placed our nation years behind Russia in modern bombing fleets (which he thinks are indispensable in any adequate national defense system).

General Twining accepts the U.S. tradition of a civilian head of national defense, but he contends the overwhelming opinion of professional military advisors must be considered in formulation of policy. Secretary McNamara, he says, "should not be in a position to ride rough-shod over professional military judgment and at the same time to be able to invoke pressures which tend to muzzle the professional establishment in its traditional dealings with both the public press and the Congress."

ROBERT STRANGE McNAMARA

Background and Circumstances Surrounding His Appointment

The following excerpt from "Special Report—Robert Strange McNamara," published by Liberty Lobby, pinpoints role of the Invisible Government.

"The Ford Foundation, through its Fund for the Republic, was the feeding trough for hundreds of America's most power-hungry and influential 'intellectuals.' It supplied a large part of the Kennedy braintrust that was then laying the foundation for the New Frontier. One of these enigmatic power-seekers was none other than Adam Yarmolinsky, National Secretary of the Fund for the Republic, and a shadowy figure in the socialistic heirarchy surrounding the democratic candidate. Yarmolinsky, son of two communist party functionaries, was also a Harvard man. He was graduated in 1943, the same year Harvard instructor McNamara left the campus to join the Air Corps Computer team. Like McNamara, Yarmolinsky entered the Air Corps that year.

"Such was the setting for the unusual events that followed the 1960 election. Kennedy began to organize his new administration, and chose his brother-in-law, Sargent Shriver, to head up a screening committee to find talent for the New Frontier. Sitting at the left hand of Shriver was Adam Yarmolinsky, and it was Yarmolinsky who fingered Robert Strange McNamara for Secretary of Defense." (See U.S. News and World Report, July 25, 1966).

Once more a ZIONIST INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT representative leads America down the treason road . . . !

Lenin Expressed It as Follows

"On the basis of my observations gathered during my years of exile, the 'cultured' class of the capitalist countries of western Europe and America, i.e., the ruling classes, the financial aristocracy, the bourgeoisie and the idealistic democrats should be regarded as deaf-mutes and treated accordingly. The deaf-mute capitalist hoarders, their governments, the Chambers of Commerce, the federations of industry, bank groups, steel kings, rubber kings, aluminum kings, and others will close their eyes to the above-mentioned truth and so become blind, deaf, and dumb. They will grant us credits, which will fill the coffers of the communist organizations in their countries while they enlarge and improve our armaments industry by supplying all kinds of wares, which we shall need for future and successful attacks against our suppliers."

How We Got Where We Are

of country boys out to conquer the world. They have nothing to do with Old Testament Judaism. They are not "real" Jews in the sense of being descended from any people who ever lived in ancient Palestine. They are quite clever for a bunch of yokels, but not supermen by any chance. In fact, their power grab has already failed, and has brought disaster upon the world, and especially upon the United States.

Our support of Zionism has made us enemies of the whole world which hates the Jews. We have lost every worthwhile alliance we ever had, and we stand alone and despised in the world. Don't try to tell the Russians about Red Russia. They know more about it than you, because they learned by sad and bitter experience, while you learned from Jew-owned newspapers. The Jew-owned newspapers told you that Russia was a strange, mad place, where working men had rebelled and turned the world upside down. You, fool goy that you are, believed this vastly improbable tale. The Jews knew how to hook you. Now suddenly you find that Russia is not a ramshackle place run by rebellious working men; it is a high-powered military despotism which threatens you with extinction. The Jews lied about it. Actually, they never intended to let Russia get this far out of hand, but things went wrong for them.

Today New York City is the capital of world Khazar-Judaism. It is also the real capital of Marxism, the citadel from which, in 1917, the Bolsheviks went forth to conquer Russia and make it a Jewish colony, to be run by remote control from New York. This has not quite worked out. It is really very hard to run a distant nation of 200,000,000 people by remote control from New York. The Jews are still trying, though. Soon they will try to pull off another great, brilliant ideological coup to try to recover their faltering power around the world. They will fail, because they are a pack of country boys who have bitten off more than they can chew. We need not fear that the Jews will rule the whole world for any great length of time. WHAT WE NEED TO FEAR IS THE CONSEQUENCES OF THEIR FAILURE. While they will fail to set up a workable new world order, they have already succeeded in destroying the old world order. They have wrought such a wholesale destruction of the Gentile culture of the West that I see little prospect of recovery. The West, especially the United States, can no longer even discuss its real problems in intelligent terms. I would not give a dime for either side in any of the "great controversies" going on today. Most especially, I would not give a dime for either the "left" or the "right." These are the bastard intellectual children of Khazar-Judaism.

The American Conservative could recover his usefulness and function only by facing squarely the fact that he is, as of now, a failure. It is not only that he always loses elections; even if he should win one, he has no program. He could only sit dumbly in office and obey the "establishment," whose orders he would not understand, but could only carry out dumbly. In order to be a really functional power holder, you must comprehend clearly the realities which confront you. Any business executive ought to know that. When he works in his own field, the American Gentile business executive DOES know it. But when he goes into politics, he promptly throws reality to the four winds and acts upon fantasies. The American Gentile business executive is, as we have said before, the best industrial manager and the worst politician on the face of the earth. Today he has virtually abdicated from politics and has left the field to the Jews. In this field, the Jews are not especially competent. They have won by superior charlatanism, not superior competence. The charlatanism which gave them their power is related to Marxism. The Conservative is always talking about "going back" to some sound principles which he fancies existed in the past; but lineal time does not move backward; it moves forward. The Conservative thinks that moving "forward" can only mean moving in a more Liberal or Marxian direction. He cannot conceive forward movement in any other terms. Here we see the appalling magnitude and the abysmal depth of the defeat of the old Gentile leadership class in the United States. Now and then we have a thinker, like Ulrich Varange, who can think of forward movement in some other terms than movement toward deeper Liberalism or Marxism. His book IMPERIUM is truly great, but Varange died in misery and obscurity in jail, when only 200 copies of his book had been printed privately. He wasted his time and effort. He pointed to the path of development, of forward motion, which our civilization would normally have followed, if the Jews had not interfered. It is a form of forward motion entirely different from movement toward Liberalism or Marxism. The American Conservative has lost the power of forward motion.

In parting, I will say this to the American Conservative: If you are looking for somebody to flatter you, you will have to get yourself another boy. I have seen the kind of flunkies and creeps you usually have working in the offices of your Conservative organizations. I wouldn't work for you. In the first place, I am financially independent and don't have to. In the second place, I wouldn't be found dead in such creepy company anyway. If you are looking for flatterers, you will have to look elsewhere. If you want to know why your "movements" always fail, and why your candidates always lose elections, I will tell you: You are losing because the Jews have you hooked by your own vanities and vices, your shallow class attitudes, your easy-going anti-intellectualism (you cannot imagine the existence of any kind of intellectual activity except Marxist activity). You are failing because you are empty, shallow, and ideologically bankrupt. If you will face these facts squarely, perhaps you can get yourself off of the Jewish hook. If you don't get yourself unhooked pretty soon, you are finished. Half of the world already thinks that you are finished. Why do you think that DeGaulle denounced his American alliance and drove NATO out of France? DeGaulle simply thinks that you are a loser, and he doesn't want to fool around with losers. If you allow your foreign policy to be made by Zionists, so that Israel outweighs nations like Germany, France, Italy, and Japan, can you expect those nations to maintain their alliances with you? The rest of the world is playing for keeps. Only the United States is playing asinine Jewish games. The United States used to be a great country. It is a sad thing to see it going down the drain so fast. Nobody would like to see the destruction of the United States stopped more than I. The process of our degeneration and destruction can be stopped only by realistic action, based upon a competent analysis of the realities which confront us. If you cannot accomplish that, do not expect me to take part in your empty and stupid sloganeering, your futile campaigns to take us back to the days of McKinley, or your idle daydreaming. I have had more than enough of all that. In common vernacular, the time has come to PUT UP OR SHUT UP !

Zionists Planned and Directed Subversion of Defense Dept.

Adam Yarmolinsky's maneuvering is but the latest chapter in the long history of complete Zionist domination of such vital areas as our Defense Dept. Yarmolinsky had his counterpart in such characters as Anna M. Rosenberg, Murray Snyder and Paul Nitze. Anna M. Rosenberg, identified in sworn Congressional testimony as having attended Communist front meetings, supervised the hiring of over a million persons, many Communists, while Asst. Sec. of Defense under George Marshall. Eisenhower appointed Murray Snyder, then White House Press Sec., as Asst. Sec. of Defense under Wilson and McIlroy. Paul Nitze, former braintruster and State Dept. planner, served similarly from 1960-63.

It's the same old stratagem: Let the Gentile front men bear the attack while the Zionists sabotage from a more inconspicuous position!
